BESSEMER STUDENTS WALK OUT ON STRIKE

McKenzie Is Named Chairman Of Shaster

NATIONAL DEFENSE TO BE STRESSED AS HEARINGS STARTED

Commission Organized At Initial Meeting In Washington

FIRST WITNESS THIS AFTERNOON

Governmental Heads Will Be Heard By Commissioners

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Muscle Shoals commission, appointed recently by President Coolidge, elected former Representative McKenzie, of Illinois, chairman today at its first meeting.

After organization the commission decided to proceed in executive session, with hearings which will extend over the next few days, discussing the problem with officers of the army.

The commission has not yet decided the extent of its hearing in Washington, nor has it formulated an itinerary for visiting Muscle Shoals and other points.

The commission selected William Murray of Illinois, to act as its secretary. Mr. Murray is a member of the Illinois farm bureau.

All the members of the commission were present, including in addition to Representative McKenzie, former Senator Dial, of South Carolina, Professor Harry H. Curtis, chemical engineer of Yale University, William McClellan, engineer of New York City, and Russel F. Bower, of the American farm bureau federation.

The commission, following the suggestion made to it by the President, decided to call before it representatives of the war, commerce and agricultural departments for such expert recommendations as they have to offer.

The first witness to appear will be Assistant Secretary of War Davis, who will come before the commission this afternoon, in the absence of Secretary Weeks, who is ill. The commission also will hear this afternoon Dr. E. E. Ball, director of scientific work and F. G. Cotterrell, director of the fixed nitrogen research laboratory, both of the department of agriculture.

At the close of the morning Chairman McKenzie stated that the commission, in approaching the Muscle Shoals problem, placed most emphasis upon its development as a part of the national defense.

He stated that in this aspect it took first rank, exceeding in importance, in the judgment of the commission, aeroplanes and all other phases of national preparedness. It was of vital importance, in the judgment of the commission, he stated, that the nation should be assured of an adequate supply of power in the case of emergency.

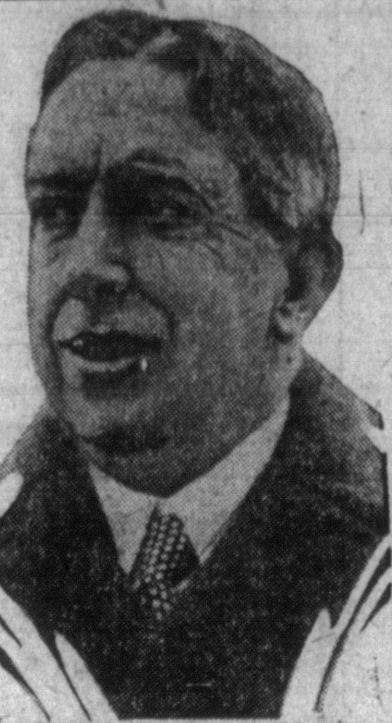

The making of nitrogen for fertilizer and the incidental development of electric power would be considered by the commission, he explained, as subsidiary.

SEVENTY-SEVEN ARE ADDED TO CHURCH

Great Interest Being Shown In Services Of Methodists

At the Central Methodist church on Wednesday evening Dr. Patterson spoke on the eternal punishment to a capacity audience. The idea of the great preacher was developed along the line that the most unspeakable horror in the mind of Jesus was the consequence of sin. Jesus taught that if a hand, foot or eye should offend it would be better to lose the member of the body than to lose the soul. If Christ meant in his endeavor to get across to humanity, the awful consequences of sin the literal burning of hell, it was bad enough, but if he is speaking figuratively, it is infinitely worse for the philosophy of figures is that one is trying to represent something that is utterly impossible to be expressed. A doctrine of eternal punishment not customarily heard in evangelistic meetings was set forth. God does not hate the sinner, but the sin. One of the preachers most characteristic appeals was made that men turn away from sin and not suffer its awful consequences. One of the results of sin is that it separates men from all worthwhile contacts in this life and in the life to come and there is no greater punishment greater than solitary confinement. At the close of the sermon a number came forward to the inquiry room and gave themselves to Christ and the church. Over seventy-seven have united with the church during the revival.

A full program was carried out by the workers during the day. At the Alabama Power Company the ten minute service was held at 9:30 o'clock and at ten Dr. Patterson spoke at the church, at noon he spoke at the shops, and at the same time Mrs. Lindsey conducted a Bible hour at the "Y" for the business and employed girls and women of the city. The story-hour at 3 o'clock was full of interest for the children and at 6:15 a special service and social hour was held for the young people. Announcement was made that on Friday evening a social would be held for the young people, and seven o'clock the young people would put on their pajamas, after which Dr. Patterson would speak to the young people on a special subject. This is expected to be the largest mass meeting of young people in the history of the church. Announcement was also made that a mass meeting for men would be held at the church at 3 o'clock on the subject "Swallow your own Spit." The

CONTRACT AWARDED BY CITY OF DECATUR FOR 3 NEW STREETS

Trio of Thoroughfares Will Be Paved By Municipality

INDEPENDENT CO. GETS CONTRACT

Bid of Company Here Is Lowest of Three Offers Received

Contract was let last night by the Decatur city council to the Independent Paving company for improvement of Davis street from the city line to Bank street, Fifth avenue west and for the completion of Line street from Davis to Lee streets.

The Independent Paving company's bid was approximately $27,000, several thousand dollars below bids offered by two other concerns, it was stated.

The company recently has completed its deal of street improvement work in Decatur and already has a complete plant here for mixing materials for construction, permitting them to save the expense of bringing a plant here for installation.

Improvement of these three additional streets is made possible, in a measure, by the fact that work on other streets was done at less expense than had been originally estimated. At the beginning of the street improvement program in Decatur bonds for the work, totalling $300,000, were sold at slightly above par.

The improvements did not cost the full amount and the council decided to do the remaining work thought to be needed, while the funds were available and no new bonds would be necessitated.

WHITE PRISONERS BREAK OUT OF JAIL

Morgan County officers are searching for four white men, who made their escape from the county jail by sawing the latch on the door of the main cell, then cutting their way through the brick wall.

The men who escaped are Euler Moore charged with burglary. He had been convicted and appealed his case; Austin Lang, charged with petit larceny; Austin Walls, charged with burglary; Walter Perryear, charged with assault.

According to reports today at the sheriff's office, when the janitor made his nightly rounds, he was informed by one prisoner, who did not escape, that he was ill and his individual cell door was left open for the night. It was believed that the men who did not escape were hiding outside their own cells, when the doors were locked.

During the night the men were able to saw off the latch and open the door leading into the main room of the building. It was an easy task for the men to dig through the brick wall.

Officials announced today that the damage done to the cell door by the prisoners had been repaired by N. W. George local locksmith. A new lock has been placed on the door and it is now believed that it would almost be impossible for the lock to be opened.

GEORGE BABE RUTH STILL VERY ILL BUT NAPS AFTER EATING

Reports of His Death On Train Dissipated On Car's Arrival

Home Run King Will Be Rushed to Hospital In New York

(Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 9.—Babe Ruth, New York Yankee slugger, suffered a slight concussion of the brain this afternoon, when he fell in the washroom of the car that was bringing him home to New York from Asheville, N. C., where he was taken ill last Tuesday.

Ruth apparently had felt the strain of the long trip north, although on the run from Baltimore he had been well enough to eat some breakfast and to chat with his traveling companion, Paul Kritchell, the Yankee scout.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Reports that George Herman "Babe" Ruth, baseball's premier batsman, had died enroute from Asheville, N. C., to New York, were dissipated early today with the arrival here of the train on which he is travelling.

Those in charge of the train said that Ruth, who collapsed in Asheville Tuesday still was ill, but that his condition so far as they knew, was not serious.

Reports that the home run king had died en route to Washington started in the early morning hours when his train was speeding through southwestern Virginia. Originating apparently in Canada, it spread with almost incredible rapidity.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 9.—Babe Ruth had a good night and was improved this morning, Paul Kritchell, veteran scout of the New York Yankees, said on the arrival of the train here, bearing Ruth to New York from Asheville, N. C., where he collapsed Tuesday.

Ruth will be met in New York by his physician, Dr. King, Kritchell said, and will be taken to St. Vincent's hospital.

Ruth was taking a nap when the train reached here, after having eaten some breakfast.

He was remanded to the custody of Sheriff O. E. Bradford, of Muskingum County until the fine was paid. He also was placed under the control of the Muskingum County juvenile court until he reaches 21 years of age.

Miss Vogel was placed under strict probation of the court for the next 12 months.

Soon after the sentence had been pronounced, Mrs. Donahay paid the fine and costs.

Judge Graham said he was convinced that there had been no improper

INSTRUCTIONS ON REUNION ARE GIVEN

Dallas To Be Scene Of Gathering of Hosts In Gray

Instructions were given out this morning to Confederate veterans and sons of veterans who are planning to attend the re-union to be held in Dallas, Texas, from May 18 through the 22nd. It was explained that it was necessary to obtain credentials before the lowest railroad rate could be obtained for the trip.

All confederate veterans are instructed to obtain their credentials from Dr. G. R. Sullivan before obtaining railroad fares. The sons of veterans are asked to see Dr. A. M. Roan, commandant or W. C. Hughes, adjutant and arrange to get credentials so as to secure recognition and the proper reduction in railway fares.

It is thought that quite a number of local veterans and sons of veterans are preparing to make the trip to Dallas in May and it was urged that these matters be taken up at once with the proper authorities.

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weathersby, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."
"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."
"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength."
"I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."

BUSINESS MAN TELLS HOW DIFFICULT IT IS TO GIVE AWAY HIS BUSINESS
Henry A. Dix, of Mount Kisco, N. Y., decided his accumulations of worldly goods were sufficient to keep him and his family in comfort the remainder of their lives, and he began formulation of plans to give away his business to those who worked for him.
The results of his experiment justified the trouble he experienced in overcoming the obstacles encountered. Mr. Dix reports. His friends, his associates and his attorneys presented all kinds of arguments against the plan, but recently on his return from Europe, after an absence of two years, he found the business being operated on a profitable plane. He says:
It took me two years to find a way to give the plants to the employees. My lawyers raised objections; my friends and advisers raised objections, too. They all said: "Why, where will you find anybody to run it? Where are you going to get a president? Where will you get a board of directors and where will you get a manager from among all your employees? They don't know how to run a big business like yours."
But they were all mistaken. Today's president of Henry A. Dix & Sons is one of the most competent young men I ever saw. He started with the company as a mere boy at $6 a week. As president of the company he gets $125. There are no big salaries, because we wanted to spread out the increase so that all employees would benefit. In addition to their regular salaries, officers and employees receive annually ten per cent of what they make.
The first year that the boys ran the business they showed a net profit of $60,000. The second year the net profit was $50,000, after they had paid $18,000 to move the offices to larger quarters required because of business expansion.
From now on they will be buying the capital stock of the business from me at the rate of $100,000 annually, and in five more years they will own all the stock outright. The money they pay me for the stock I am giving to charities.
Today they are making more money out of that business than I ever believed I could make. The reason is that every man is doing his level best because every man has a personal interest in seeing the business prosper.
"This romance of Henry A. Dix and Sons is just another disclosure of the progress toward a more splendid future that is steadily taking place in American history," The Christian Science Monitor says.

VALUE OF TRAINING SQUAD TO CITY POINTED OUT BY NEWSPAPER MAN
Casting about for new means to advertise their city, business men of De Land, Florida, decided many months ago to bring a baseball team there this spring, and after considerable negotiating, the Toledo Baseball Association, of the American Association, announced that its squad would be conditioned in De Land.
To the public it appeared that the Toledo club simply had chosen De Land because the city had some superior advantage, which other communities had not. To those who know more or less about the financial considerations involved in such transactions, it was apparent that the business men of De Land had made some monetary inducement to Toledo, just as practically all other cities make when they are picked as training cities.
All of which brings us to ask why Albany-Decatur cannot perfect arrangements with one of the major league teams, or even one of the Class AA or Class A teams to train here. It is true that the Twin Cities are located a bit farther north than are cities which usually are selected for training sites, but the weather we have enjoyed this spring would have quickly rounded almost any baseball squad into tip-top shape.
Our hotel facilities here are splendid and by next year Malone Park should be in pretty fair shape. Whatever work would be necessary to place the park in good playing condition could be made at very little expense.
With other inducements the equal of what other cities offer, what would be necessary for Albany-Decatur to do to get a team next spring? That would depend, probably, on just how the negotiations developed, but more than likely Albany-Decatur would be required to guarantee the team coming here a certain minimum amount on all exhibition games played here.
In other words, we would be required to do largely exactly the same thing necessary to procure and finance a team of our own the whole season. The difference would be that the major league club, or the Class AA team would get for us publicity in every eastern and mid-western newspaper in America.
C. W. Howard, managing editor of The Toledo Times, in a recent article published in The DeLand Daily News, estimates that the publicity DeLand has received through the training of the Toledo team there is easily worth $25,000. The amount which business men of the city may pay will cost no such sum, and the fans of the community have had the pleasure of watching a number of big league teams in action as well.
Read Mr. Howard's statement below and then let us consider this matter for our community:
The publicity DeLand has received through the visit here of the Toledo American Association baseball club could not have been purchased for $25,000!
To a person unfamiliar with the value of newspaper space this may seem altogether an unreasonable figure, but to anyone who will carefully analyze this baseball experiment in DeLand it will be seen that the $25,000 estimate really is conservative.
To start with, perhaps it will be well to let you readers in on a bit of "inside newspaper construction." By that is meant the tremendous cost to which a newspaper itself goes in an effort to "cover" the activities of its home town baseball club—and the baseball clubs in all of the principal leagues and associations of the country.
In Toledo it is recognized that the American Association club is one of the city's greatest advertising assets—and yet all Toledo does for the ball club is support the team thru regular attendance at the regularly scheduled games. There is no subsidy for President Joseph D. O'Brien—he must depend entirely on the gate receipts.
The advertising value of the ball club to Toledo lies in the fact that the word "Toledo" appears day in and day out in hundreds of newspapers everywhere in the United States—and keeps the public awake to the fact that Toledo is doing something—that Toledo is a baseball town and everyone knows that a good baseball town usually is a good business community.
So, if Toledo, a city of 300,000, situated contiguous to Detroit and Cleveland, cities of approximately a million residents and the home of two major league ball clubs, believes in the advertising value of the Toledo ball club year in and year out, why should not DeLand believe in the advertising value of this same club?
Any modern and up-to-date business man knows that newspaper publicity is the greatest selling factor ever developed. Window cards, bill boards, hand bills and the like can't be compared with newspaper advertising as a means of producing results.
The Toledo newspapers—one morning and two afternoon—have had men with the Toledo ball club since the night the squad entrained early this month. These men will remain with the team until it returns home—and some of them may accompany it on the road. This will cost each of these newspapers a minimum of $500—and the writers will be away from their offices just one month.
Multiply that figure by six, which is the length of the American Association schedule, and you can see at a glance that it costs money for the newspapers to get the news of its ball players.
Add to this the amount of space given to the team in each newspaper each day of the season—approximately one column—and already you are running into big figures. And a column of space in any Toledo newspaper—twenty-two inches in length—is valued, at advertising rates at about $40.
Why do the Toledo newspapers spend so much money on the ball club? Because the readers of these newspapers demand the news of the club's activities. And the readers of these newspapers are the men and women who support the merchants of Toledo—who spend their money with the business men who, in turn, spend large sums in advertising their wares.
It's sort of an endless chain affair, if you get what is meant.
The morning newspapers in these cities—and the evening newspapers, as well—have arrangements with the sports writers in each of the towns to keep each other posted on the spring training activities of their respective clubs.
This means that in each of these other American Association cities there appeared either daily or weekly stories from DeLand, in which DeLand was mentioned perhaps several times, about the Toledo squad.
Then when the New York team, the Cincinnati team, the St. Louis team, Baltimore team, the Reading, Pa., team appeared here they were accompanied by a corps of newspaper writers from those cities. Each of these writers sent home stories under DeLand date lines—and the exchange situation which obtains in the American Association on training camp news holds good as well in all of the other baseball leagues, so it may be seen how frequently the name of this city appeared in metropolitan newspapers in scattered sections of the country.
It is, indeed, a conservative figure to say that the advertising DeLand has received from the presence of the Toledo ball club could not have been purchased for $25,000.

MISS HIGDON LOCAL ARTIST HONORED

Three paintings by Miss Helen Higdon, local artist, were given prominent places in the latest edition of the catalogue of Annual Exhibits of Southern Artists printed in Atlanta, Ga.

One of the drawings was done in red pencil and it was entitled "Old Home in Maryland." This is a picture of one of the old homes built many years before the Revolutionary war and at one time was occupied by a prominent family of Huntsville. The other two works were done in water colors, the one "Junior" was posed by an attractive little three year old boy of Albany in blue rompers; the other was a little negro boy strumming a banjo and was a likeness of a negro child that worked around the Higdon home here. The latter picture shows much talent and ability on the part of this young artist as it portrayed the careless happiness of the negro child of the South.

These exhibits have been shown in other places and cities and have received much favorable comment.

NUXATED IRON

It is the organic iron in your blood that takes up oxygen from your lungs. This oxygenated organic iron unites with your digested food as it is absorbed into your blood, like iron unites with coal or wood, and by so doing it creates tremendous power and energy. Without sufficient organic iron in your blood your food merely passes through your body without doing you any good.

Organic iron, like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, may be had from any drugstore under the name of "Nuxated Iron." In tablet form only. Millions of people are using Nuxated Iron with great benefit, their experience proving that it increases the strength and endurance of weak nervous, run-down people in many cases, in two weeks' time.

If you want that virile force, that stamina and strength so necessary to great success in practically every undertaking in life, you owe it to yourself to commence taking Nuxated Iron today.

Freckles and Blotches Are Easily Peeled Off

If you are bothered with any cutaneous blemish, it's a poor plan to use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercolized wax. Applied nightly the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, red blotches or any surface eruption. The affected cuticle is actually peeled off a little each day, until the clear, soft young and healthy skin beneath is brought wholly to view. Ask the druggist for one ounce of mercolized wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in morning with soap and water.

Many who have tried this simple, harmless treatment report astonishing results. It transforms even the most unsightly complexion into one of irresistible beauty.—Advt.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants For Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is for its remarkable record of success. An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies in an insurance company made the following statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advt.

DUPREE IS CONVICTED ON FLOGGING CHARGE

Appeal Is Taken From Decision of Judge In Jasper Court

(Associated Press)

JASPER, Ala., April 9—Will Dupree today was found guilty on a charge of flogging George Tallent and sentenced to six months at hard labor and to pay a fine of $1,000. He appealed from the verdict and sentence of the county court to the circuit court and was released on a $2,000 bond. Four other men are under indictment on a similar charge.

Judge E. W. Long who heard the case without a jury, announced his verdict almost immediately after arguments had been concluded.

The defense sought to show that Dupree was at home on the night Tallent was whipped.

JASPER, Ala., April 9—The trial of George Dupree who with four others, is charged with flogging George Tallent, was expected to end here today. Judge E. W. Long is hearing the case without a jury. Two former members of the Ku Klux Klan, Van G. Tubbs and M. G. Fields, testified to proceedings in Klan meetings. Fields testified that plans to whip Tallent were discussed at several meetings and Tubbs testified he was present at a Klan meeting on the night of the Tallent flogging and that Dupree and other members left the hall early in the evening.

Tallent, on the stand, testified he pulled a mask from Dupree's face and thereby recognized him.

Dupree is attempting to establish an alibi.
